

VE2 Group Access Levels & Functions

Member	Contributor	Administrator
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • invite others (if group is public or approval required – in the case of the latter, approval is still required once the invitee tries to join the group) • post comments on the group’s front page • view calendar events • view forums • view and comment on photos (if comments are allowed) • view resources • view group members 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • invite others (if group is public or approval required – in the case of the latter, approval is still required once the invitee tries to join the group) • post comments on the group’s front page • view and add calendar events • create and respond to discussion threads • view and create photo albums • view and add items to the resources area • view group members 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • manage the group • manage the members (including their roles) • approve any requests to join • edit the layout and add • edit or delete portlets on each page • add additional tabs to the group • invite others to join the group • post and delete comments on the group’s front page • view, add, edit and delete calendar events • view, edit, add and delete discussion threads and individual posts • add, edit and delete photo albums • add, edit and delete resources • view the group members